

2017 OTTAWA NATIONAL AND CSI3* OTTAWA INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOWS — OTTAWA, CANADA

1. Eighteen-year-old Lucy Deslauriers beat out ten-time Canadian Olympian Ian Millar, 70, to win the $100,000 CSI3* Grand Prix in an exciting jump-off. 2. Two Canadian legends — Ian Millar and Hugh Graham! 3. Ian Millar and Dixon jumped to second place in the $100,000 CSI3* Grand Prix at the Ottawa International Horse Show. 4. Amy Millar and her 2016 Rio Olympic mount Heros, owned by AMMO Investments, finished second in the $50,000 Brookstreet Grand Prix. 5. 2016 Rio Olympic course designer Guilherme Jorge set the tracks for the Ottawa National Horse Show. 6. From left to right: Kelly Soleau-Millar, Amy Millar and Karen Sparks, Executive Director of Wesley Clover Parks. 7. Francois Lamontagne soared to the win in the $20,000 Open Welcome aboard Chanel du Calvaire. 8. Kelly Soleau-Millar of Wellington, Florida, and Hoolie Hoo following their win in the $7,500 Lynn Millar Memorial Speed Derby, held in memory of Kelly's mother-in-law. 9. Ireland's Daniel Coyle enjoyed a one-two finish in the $35,000 CSI3* AECON Jumper Classic riding Tienna (pictured) and Grafton, respectively. 10. United States Equestrian Team veteran Jonathan McCrea of East Windsor, Connecticut, riding Aristoteles V. 11. Lucy Deslauriers, 18, with her father, 1984 World Cup champion Mario Deslauriers. Photos by Jump Media