Canadian John Pearce and Chantico celebrated Canada Day with a victory in the $30,000 Markel Insurance Grand Prix in San Juan Capistrano, CA. Chantico, who is owned by Karen Ball, was previously a dressage horse, but has adapted well to his new career path. "He suffered from Attention Deficit Disorder, so it was really hard for a dressage rider to deal with him," Pearce explained. "He's been a bit of a project for me for the same reason, but he's really starting to come into his own now."
