

LONGINES MASTERS OF HONG KONG - HONG KONG, CHINA

1. Longines Masters of Hong Kong visitors enjoy the Prestige Village, where they can watch the top riders warm up before entering the competition arena 2. Daniel Deusser and Cornet d'Amour place 3rd in the Longines Grand Prix of Hong Kong. After winning the Grand prix in Paris, they were on the line to win the Grand Slam Indoor title and a major bonus 3. Reed Kessler, here on Tradition de la Roque, is the only American rider who will compete in all three legs of the Longines Masters Series in Paris, Hong Kong, and New York 4. Guests and riders are interviewed for EEM.tv on the stage in the Prestige Village 5. Patrice Delaveau and Aquila HDC on their victory gallop after winning the Longines Grand Prix of Hong Kong 6. Show jumping fans revel in the top-class equestrian sport at the Longines Masters of Hong Kong 7. The Longines Grand Prix of Hong Kong top three on the podium: Max Kühner (2nd), Patrice Delaveau (1st), and Daniel Deusser (3rd) are joined by Fernanda Ameeuw of EEM, Juan-Carlos Capelli of Longines, and Karen Au Yeung of the Longines Masters of Hong Kong