

JAY DUKE Equestrian

Clinics & Course Design

Would you believe us if we said you could take a lesson with a Canadian Show Jumping Team member for just $8?

You can!

The days of struggling to freshen up your lesson program, troubleshoot a difficult horse, or come up with an effective school for a show are over and it's the digital age to the rescue. Here's the 4-1-1 on Jay Duke Equestrian's Virtual Lesson subscription:

- Subscribers pay $33 per month for a year-long subscription, which works out to be... yes, you guessed it: $8 per weekly lesson!
- What you get: One lesson per week delivered directly to your e-mail ready to travel straight to the ring with you.
- Additionally, subscribers gain access to Jay's extensive library of exercises and tips, as well as guest lessons from contributing horse sport professionals at varying levels. Last month, subscribers received a lesson from reigning FEI World Cup champion Bezie Madden!
- Bonus Benefits: Phone and video support from Jay Duke, including horse evaluations, lesson questions, etc.

LESSONS
The most important part of this technical exercise is the track, and the shape of the horse's body on the track.

Begin the exercise at the walk or trot, being very specific about the bend of the horse through the turns and the straightness of the body before and after the jumps.

Part 1
Center fence #1 to fence #2 in 7 strides. Center fence #2 to fence #3 in 4 strides. Canter the exercise in the other direction.

Part 2
Center #1 to #2 in 6 strides. Center #2 to #3 in 3 strides. Canter the exercise in the other direction.

Part 3
Center #1 to #2 in 8 strides. Center #2 to #3 in 5 strides. Canter the exercise in the other direction.
