Ali Sirota Kelman and husband, Jeremy Kelman, are pleased to announce the birth of their daughter, Savannah Kelman, born April 12, 2018 at 9:12 a.m. at 6 lbs., 8 oz. and 20 inches in New York, New York. The newest member of the Sirota-Kelman family has been embraced by siblings Lylah and Eli Kelman, as well as canine brother Alvin and equestrian siblings Briljant and Esme. Grandparents Lynda and Richard Sirota and Robin Gordon and Jay Kelman are excited for their growing families. Ali is the founder and CEO of Sirota Public Relations, a boutique public relations firm located in New York and Palm Beach. Jeremy is a managing director at Alliance Bernstein. The entire Sirota-Kelman family looks forward to seeing everyone at horse shows this year, where Ali will return to competing.

Katrina and Poldi

The Dressage Foundation welcomes Katrina Oosting from Alto, Michigan, and Poldi as Team #324 to its Century Club. To join the Century Club, the ages of horse and rider must equal 100 years or more; Katrina is 80 and Poldi is 21. Katrina purchased Poldi as a 6-year-old stallion from Juan Matute and has competed him throughout the levels since that time. Katrina and Poldi rode an Intermediaire 2 test to join the Club, which is rare for Century Club rides. Congrats to the team!
