

Win a Clinic with Stacia Madden in BarnManager WIHS Barn Night Video Contest!

Have you ever dreamed of training with a "big name" equitation trainer? Or wanted to improve your jumping with one of the East Coast's leading show trainers, dedicated to developing young riders? Now's your chance!

The winning entry in this year's Washington International Horse Show (WIHS) Barn Night Video Contest, presented by BarnManager, will be awarded a clinic for their group with STACIA MADDEN!

Individual riders or barn groups, horse-loving clubs, or aspiring filmmakers are all invited to enter this year's video contest, with winners announced on Thursday, October 25, at WIHS Barn Night.

Videos may be in any style (documentary, animation, live action, etc.), must be less than two minutes in length, and should follow this year's Barn Night theme of "Riding Through the Decades!"

Entries registered by October 2 will also be automatically entered in a raffle to win a $250 Dover Saddlery gift card!

Meet Stacia Madden

Stacia Klein Madden is one of the most successful trainers of young, developing show jumping talent in the United States. As a junior, Madden won the 1987 ASPCA Maclay Finals and placed in both the AHSA Medal Finals and the USET Show Jumping Talent Search Finals-East.

After turning professional in 1988, she started training out of Beacon Hill Show Stables, now located in Colts Neck, NJ. As a professional rider, Madden was highly successful in both the hunter and jumper ring showing top hunters Another Affair, Copper Creek, Dark Harbor, Hidden Treasure, Kawamaha, and Manifesto to major championships before shifting her concentration to the training aspect of the business.

Today, she has trained several of the most promising junior riders - riders who have potential to represent the United States at the highest levels of International competition. Madden also serves on several national committees including the National Horse Show Equitation Committee, the Hampton Classic Advisory Committee, the Lake Placid Advisory Committee, the USEF High Performance Task Force, and the USHJA Hunter Seat Equitation Task Force. She is a USHJA Certified Trainer as well as a recognized "R" judge in the hunter and hunter seat equitation divisions. She also donates her time to the USHJA Mentor Program and spreads her expertise by giving clinics around the country. Madden is also an ambassador for the ASPCA Welfare of Animals.
