

WASHINGTON INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW

Photos by Jump Media

ADLER
26
FINOU 4

Aaron Vale and Finou 4 cleared 6'11 1/2" to win the $25,000 Land Rover Puissance.

Defending World Cup champion Beezie Madden won the $135,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington.

Becky Gochman rode Catch Me to the Grand 3'6" Amateur-Owner Hunter Championship.

The annual Breakfast with the Mounted Police attracts passersby of all ages.

Dressed as Danny from "Grease," Brian Moggre, 17, sped to the win in the $35,000 International Jumper Accumulator Costume Class.

Catherine Tyree, 24, won the $40,000 International Jumper Welcome Stake riding Bokai.

Bill Rube, representing the Lindsay Maxwell Charitable Fund, presented Elli Yeager as the 2018 LMCF WIHS Equitation Finals winner.

Georgina Bloomberg rode Paola 233 to the win in the $50,000 International Jumper Speed Final.

Hunt Tosh rode Bastogne, owned by Ceil Wheeler, to both the Grand Green Hunter and Grand Hunter Championships.