

SNAPSHOT

FEI/LIZ GREGG • KIM BEAUDOIN FOR IDA • SHANNON BRINKMAN PHOTOGRAPHY • SPORTFOT • LIBBY LAW PHOTOGRAPHY • EQ MEDIA

1. Isabell Werth (GER) and Weihegold OLD leave the arena at the FEI Dressage World Cup™ Final in Gothenburg, Sweden, after earning the winning score in the Grand Prix with 81.755 percent. The pair progressed to win the freestyle with 88.872 percent for Werth's fifth World Cup title. • 2. Otterbein University's Kermit is awarded the Malloot Trophy for Most Valuable Horse at the 2019 Intercollegiate Dressage Association National Championships, hosted by Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio in April. • 3. Switzerland's Steve Guerdat came out on top for his third Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final victory with the 11-year-old gelding Alamo. • 4. Nayel Nassar (EGY) and Lucifer V took top honors at the $400,000 Longines Grand Prix of New York, part of the Longines Masters. • 5. Piggy French (GBR) and Vanir Kamira share an emotional moment as they take the win after show jumping at the Mitsubishi Motors Badminton Horse Trials in the United Kingdom. • 6. Savannah College of Art and Design's Adam Edgar secured the USEF/Cacchione Cup at the Intercollegiate Horse Shows Association National Championship. 🏆