

HORSE SHOWS

WASHINGTON INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW

Washington, District of Columbia

Oct. 22-27

The Washington International Horse Show took over the Capital One Arena. KIMBERLY LOUSHIN PHOTO

Reid Rickett gave some passersby the chance to get up close and personal with one of her charges. KIMBERLY LOUSHIN PHOTO

Jordan Coyle dressed as Woody from "Toy Story" with Essener Cruxis in the $36,000 accumulator 1.45-meter costume class. LINDSAY BERRETH PHOTO

Lauren McCaulley and Tenacious D took home the low junior/amateur-owner jumper championship. LINDSAY BERRETH PHOTO

Kristen Vanderveen won Best Costume with Bull Run's Faustino De Tili as Cruella de Vil and one of her Dalmatians in the $36,000 accumulator 1.45-meter costume class. LINDSAY BERRETH PHOTO

Climbus carried Paige Matthies to the high junior/amateur-owner jumper championship. LINDSAY BERRETH PHOTO

Stephanie Danhagl won the 3'3" amateur-owner hunter, 18-35, championship on her veteran partner Enough Said. In between classes, she worked in visits to D.C.'s art museums to research for her dissertation. KIERAN PAULSEN PHOTO