Today is #GivingTuesdayNow, a global day of unity taking place as a response to the unprecedented need caused by the coronavirus pandemic.

It's a day where we can all come together and give back in all ways, no matter who or where we are. COVID-19 has shown us how vital our work is in the community. As most states continue to operate under stay-at-home orders, we are receiving calls for assistance and want to be ready for the weeks and months ahead. Your donations allow us to prepare for the aftermath of this pandemic with the promise that we will do everything we can to help horses in need.

As a privately funded non-profit, DEFHR completely relies on the support from the public community. Your donation allows us to provide support for local law enforcement and animal control agencies, every horse we welcome into our rehabilitation program is because of donors like you!

Thanks to DEFHR's Board of Directors donations will be matched 1:1 up to $3,300! That is DOUBLE the IMPACT!
