Vivian Golden Garners Grand Pony Hunter Champion at Capital Challenge Horse Show

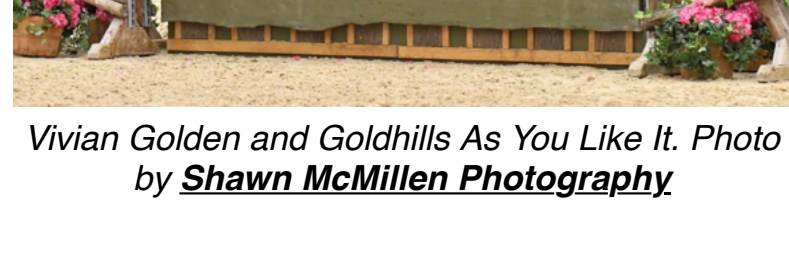

Wilmington, OH – Out of a field of more than 75 ponies, Vivian Golden aboard her own Goldhills As You Like It took home the title of Grand Pony Hunter Champion on Saturday, October 3, at the Capital Challenge Horse Show.

The Grand Champion title, sponsored by Enchantment Farms was awarded to the Pony Hunter who accumulated the most points over all three divisions. Golden, of Wyomissing, PA, took champion honors in the Medium Pony Hunters with 32 points, winning today's over fences class and placing second in the Medium Pony Stake, second in the remaining over fences, and third under saddle.

"It feels amazing," the 11-year-old said of her achievement. "We got her last year, and it was a little bit of a bumpy road. She was hard to get used to. We weren't a perfect match together at first, but we have gotten to know each other, and it feels amazing to have accomplished this much."

Golden's mount, nicknamed "Gracie" in the barn, also helped her achieve the Best Pony Rider Award, sponsored by Archie Cox and Brookway Stables. They were also presented with The VanderMoore Designs Trophy for the grand championship, donated by Chuck and Melva VanderMoore. "She is amazing to ride," Golden said of her 12-year-old Welsh pony by Gayfields Call the Cops. "Every jump is so fun, and she's so comfortable. When I first saw her, I knew she was perfect."
