

A Look Back at the Washington International Horse Show

In 2020, the Washington International Horse Show presented by MARS Equestrian™ found a temporary home at Tryon International Equestrian Center, and once again showcased the best of the best in show jumping, hunters, and equitation competition. We still can't get enough of #WIHS2020, and we invite you to take a look back at this year's event. Thank you to the sponsors, exhibitors, grooms, horses, staff, and virtual fans for another banner year.

See you back at WIHS in 2021!

In The News

Chronicle of the Horse: Amex Z Takes Charge of the $214,000 President's Cup CSI4*

By Mollie Bailey

When Karl Cook and Caillou 24 sliced every turn during the jump-off for the $214,000 President's Cup CSI4*, live stream commentator Jimmy Torano declared the class finished. Never mind that there were still six combinations to return, Cook was that fast.

"I think it's over," said Torano. "It doesn't matter who's coming. It's over."

Good thing no one told Todd Minikus.

Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

Read More at ChronOfHorse.com

Catch Every Stride

Thanks to support from USEF Network, complete on-demand replays of livestreaming coverage from the Washington International Horse Show presented by MARS Equestrian™ is available for all events. Click HERE to watch!

2020 WIHS Memories

Visit Shawn McMillen Photography

#WIHS2020

Complete Results

Click To View

Catch Up - Who Won What

Join The Conversation

When posting about the Washington International Horse Show on social media, be sure to use the following hashtags for a chance to be featured in the Daily Briefing:

- #WIHS
- #WIHS2020
- #WIHSeq
- #WIHSpresidentscup

