

Washington International Horse Show
presented by MARS Equestrian™
Tryon International
Equestrian Center

Photo Gallery by Jump Media

Thirty years after his first Washington International Horse Show grand prix win, U.S. rider Todd Minikus raced to a historic third victory in the $214,000 WIHS President's Cup Grand Prix CSI4* presented by MARS Equestrian™ riding Amex Z.

U.S. grand prix rider Karl Cook pleased with his runner-up finish in the $214,000 WIHS President's Cup Grand Prix CSI4* presented by MARS Equestrian™ riding Caillou 24.

The coveted WIHS Equitation Finals took place at Tryon International Equestrian Center in 2020.

EQUITATION
FINALS
2020

Mckayla Brombach hails from Wimberley, TX, exceeded her own expectations by winning the WIHS Pony Equitation Finals riding California Dreamin'.

Ponies capped the five-day Washington International Horse Show in the WIHS Pony Equitation Finals.

Margaret Stell of Winston-Salem, NC, was excited just to qualify for WIHS before dominating the WIHS Children's Hunter Championship aboard Clever.

Leigh Nanda of Wilmette, IL, all smiles after winning the WIHS Children's Jumper Championship riding El Casper.

Mattie Worsham of Aiken, SC, rode 20-year-old Scout to the WIHS Adult Hunter Championship before retiring the gelding.

There was no stopping 15-year-old Tessa P. Brown of Jamaica, VT, who scored big in the prestigious WIHS Equitation Finals riding Davide.

A kiss for the winner! Lindsey Tomeu of Wellington, FL, and Bonapart topped the WIHS Adult Jumper Champions to complete their bucket list together.

A treasured WIHS ribbon on Clever, ridden by Margaret Stell.

