Renowned Canadian official Bobbie Reber of Schomberg, ON, was honoured as this year's recipient of the Daniel P. Lenehan Perpetual Trophy. Donated by Geoff Teall in memory of Daniel P. Lenehan, the trophy is presented annually by the World Championship Hunter Rider (WCHR) Committee to an individual who exemplifies dedication and a lifetime commitment to judging show hunters.

The presentation, which was met by a standing ovation from her fellow officials, took place on Friday, October 2, at the Capital Challenge Horse Show in Wilmington, OH.
