Maddie Rockafellow and Kate Klebe show how much they love their ponies by giving them hugs and love for the holiday season!

Carl, owned by Sidelines writer Ruby Tevis, is a well-read horse — catching up on his reading of Sidelines, known as the equestrian magazine For Horse People (and Horses like Carl), About Horse People!

Nurse practitioner Abigail Newton enjoys reading the story on Emily and Sarah Harris, Sisters Horsing Around, in the October issue of Sidelines.

The Pirellos and their horse Copper enjoy the sun, and their Sidelines magazine, in Parker, Colorado. The trio sends best holiday wishes to all!

Cindy Lay and her dog Harley celebrate the holidays and the opening of Cindy's new store, Exceptional Equestrian, in Ocala, Florida. Pick up a copy of Sidelines at Cindy's store when it opens in January.

Congratulations to Sharon Ortepio, of Turpin Realtors, and her mare Bella MMF for winning the Reserve Grand Champion Mare in the USDF Breeders Championship Series. Sidelines is pleased to share Sharon's news in this issue which features our Stallion & Breeding guide — don't miss it!

Socially Distant Sidelines!

Sandy Ferrell and Aleco Bravo-Greenberg demonstrate the correct way to social distance with a Sidelines magazine! Sandy taught a clinic at Aleco's Rutledge Farm in November.

Aleco and two-time Olympic show jumper Anne Kursinski show off the December issue of Sidelines magazine. Anne taught a clinic at Aleco's Rutledge Farm — keeping everything social distanced, from the riding to showing off Sidelines.
