EQUESTRIAN CENTER®

World Equestrian Center Magazine VOL II 2021 Available Now

In this issue we celebrate the opening of the stunning Equestrian Hotel at World Equestrian Center – Ocala. In the style of a fabulous French chateau, the hotel is the crown jewel of the venue with beautifully-appointed suites and guest rooms, a luxury day spa, a large swimming pool, a whimsical toy store, the elegant Stirrups Restaurant and relaxed Yellow Pony Irish pub. Top it off with amazing views of the Grand Arena and a spectacular dining terrace, it is the ultimate equestrian destination.

Take a Peek Inside

Stable Spotlight: Caliburn Farm

WEC takes a tour of the beautiful Caliburn Farm in the "Stable Spotlight" feature. Owner Gail Dady places an emphasis on the care and training of her magnificent jumpers to ensure that they are developed into confident competitors.

Junior Rider Focus: Alivia Kohus

Alivia Kohus is the subject of the Junior Rider Focus. In addition to being an accomplished young rider in the equitation ring, at just 16 years old she has been accepted to Auburn University, where she'll join their championship equestrian team.

24 Hours With Executive Pastry Chef Yohann Le Bescond

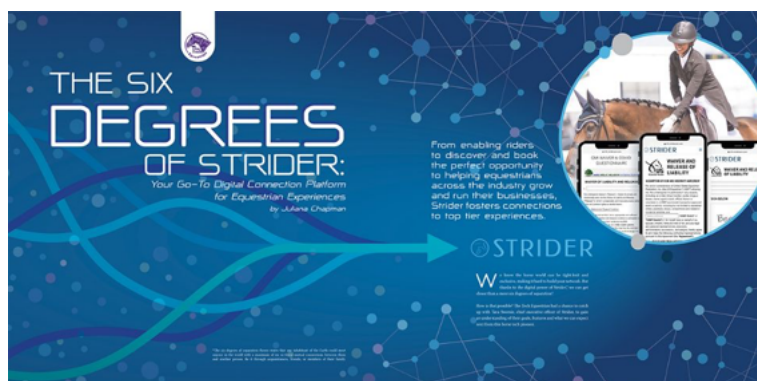

Join us for a whirlwind "24 Hours" with World Equestrian Center – Ocala executive pastry chef Yohann Le Bescond, as he tirelessly creates myriad of magnificent pastries and chocolate confections, all while overseeing the build out of the new Emma's Patisserie. You'll enjoy meeting his sidekick Red, too.

Inspiration: Gleneayre Equestrian Program

We take Inspiration from the Gleneayre Equestrian Program, where show horses and at-risk children as working students come together for equine-assisted learning and mental health community programs in a safe, nurturing environment.

The Tech Equestrian: Strider

Finally, Tech Equestrian explores Strider, the digital connection platform for equestrians.
