Two-Day Equine Cruelty Investigator Training

On Wednesday, September 22, and Thursday, September 23, 2021, DEFHR will host a two-day training for equine welfare professionals designed to help animal cruelty investigators become confident while working with and handling equines. This hands-on session is designed to educate investigators about how to identify when a horse's needs are not being met.

Topics covered include body condition scoring, dental and hoof neglect, minimum standards of care, emergency response techniques, how to take vitals, and more.

Participation is limited and registration is on a first-come-first-served basis. The sessions will run from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM on both days. Registration is $100.00 and includes lunch on both days. For more information, please email welcome@defhr.org or call 301-854-5037.

Featured Horse of the Month: Miss Madeline

Fifteen-year-old Hanoverian mare, 15.1hh

Miss Madeline is a lovely bay mare looking for a non-riding companion home. She is currently on 12-hour turnout and behaves well in a stall when not outside. This sweet girl gets along well with both mares and geldings and would love a quiet home to retire to and enjoy the good life.

Email adopt@DEFHR.org for details about Madeline.
