Ryan Genn and VDL Gerinus T Race to the Win in the $50,000 WEC Grand Prix

Ryan Genn of Rheinland Farm in Lebanon, Ohio, rode VDL Gerinus T, a 10-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding (Arezzo VDL x Rosalina) owned by Wilhelm Genn, to victory in the $50,000 WEC Grand Prix at the second week of the Fall Show Series at World Equestrian Center – Wilmington.

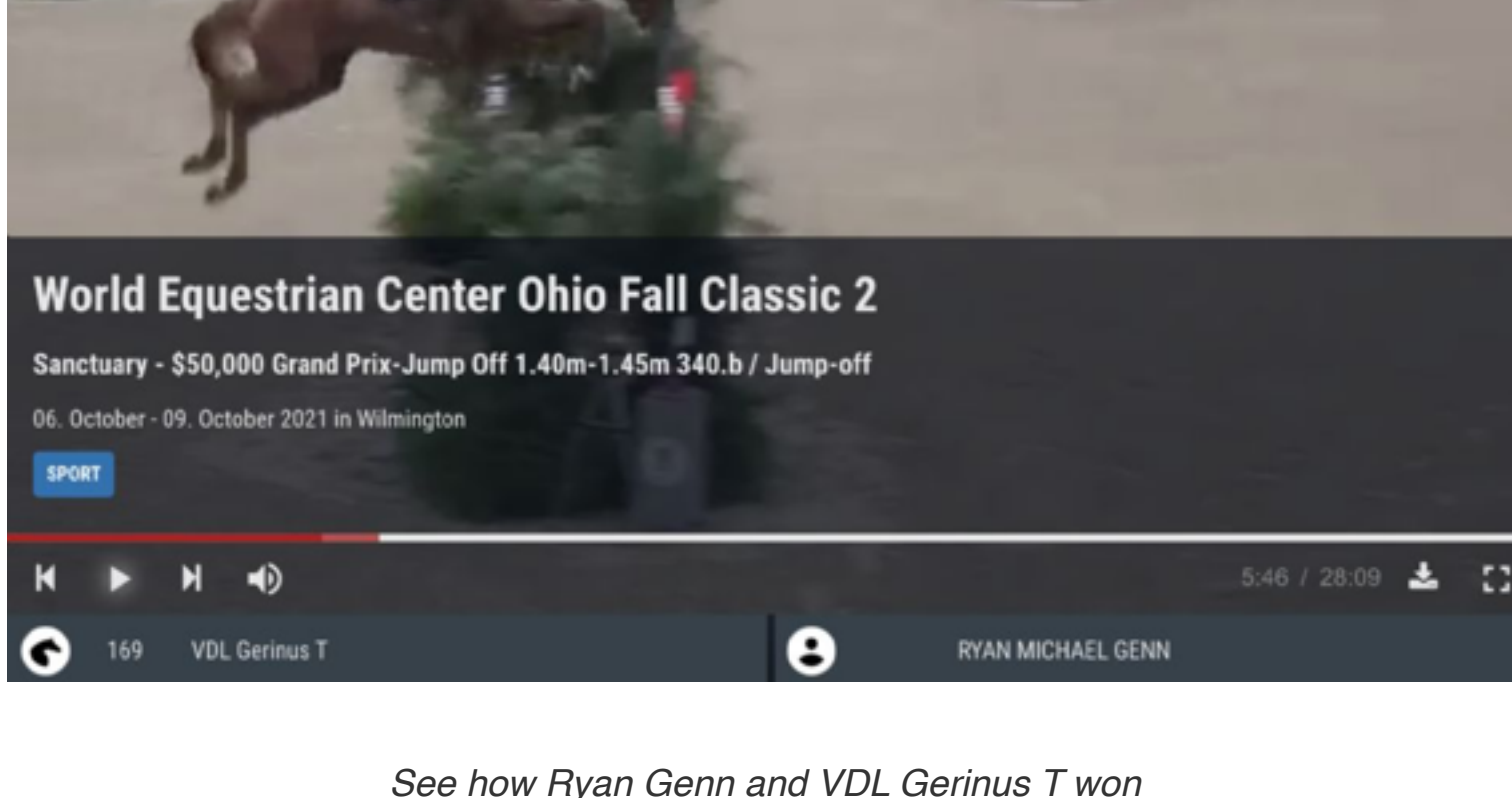

“There is no horse I’d rather jump off than him,” said Ryan Genn. “I was more careful today than normal because it was $50,000 and there were a lot of great people in it. It was a tougher course, but I’m glad it was a challenge. It’s no fun to jump the same courses every week. And to top it all off, I had a baby two weeks ago. It’s been a great year.”

David Beisel and his own Essince W finished second in the grand prix while Genn’s father Wilhelm placed third on Bugatti.

Isabel M. Harbour, who hails from Georgia, and Fitz, a 14-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding (Numero Uno x Kootje) owned by IHM Equine LLC, took the win in the $20,000 WEC Hunter Derby 3’ Non-Pro with outstanding performances in both rounds.

Harbour and Fitz took all four high options in the first round, earning a score of 94, followed by a handy round score of 91. Their combined score totaled 185, capturing the win by four points.

“Fitz has done so much for me in the four years that I’ve had him,” said Harbour. “We’ve competed in several big equitation classes, junior hunters and international derbies. He’s an all-around amazing horse.”

Christopher Coberley aboard Havens Schatt’s Actender PS (Action Breaker x Conpila) placed second with scores of 89 and 92 for an overall total of 181. Rounding out the top three was Lilly French and Miami University’s Coriano VDV (Colandro x Platieni VDV), who received scores of 86 and 90 for a two-round score of 176.
