Charlise Casas and Chaccolina D Triumph in WEC $50,000 Grand Prix

In the fourth week of the World Equestrian Center (WEC) Fall Show Series in Wilmington, Ohio, on October 20-24, 2021, the grand prix victory went to WEC newcomer Charlise Casas (USA) of Always Faithful Equestrian Club in Chicago, Ill., on Chaccolina D. The pair triumphed over a jump-off field of 15 contenders.

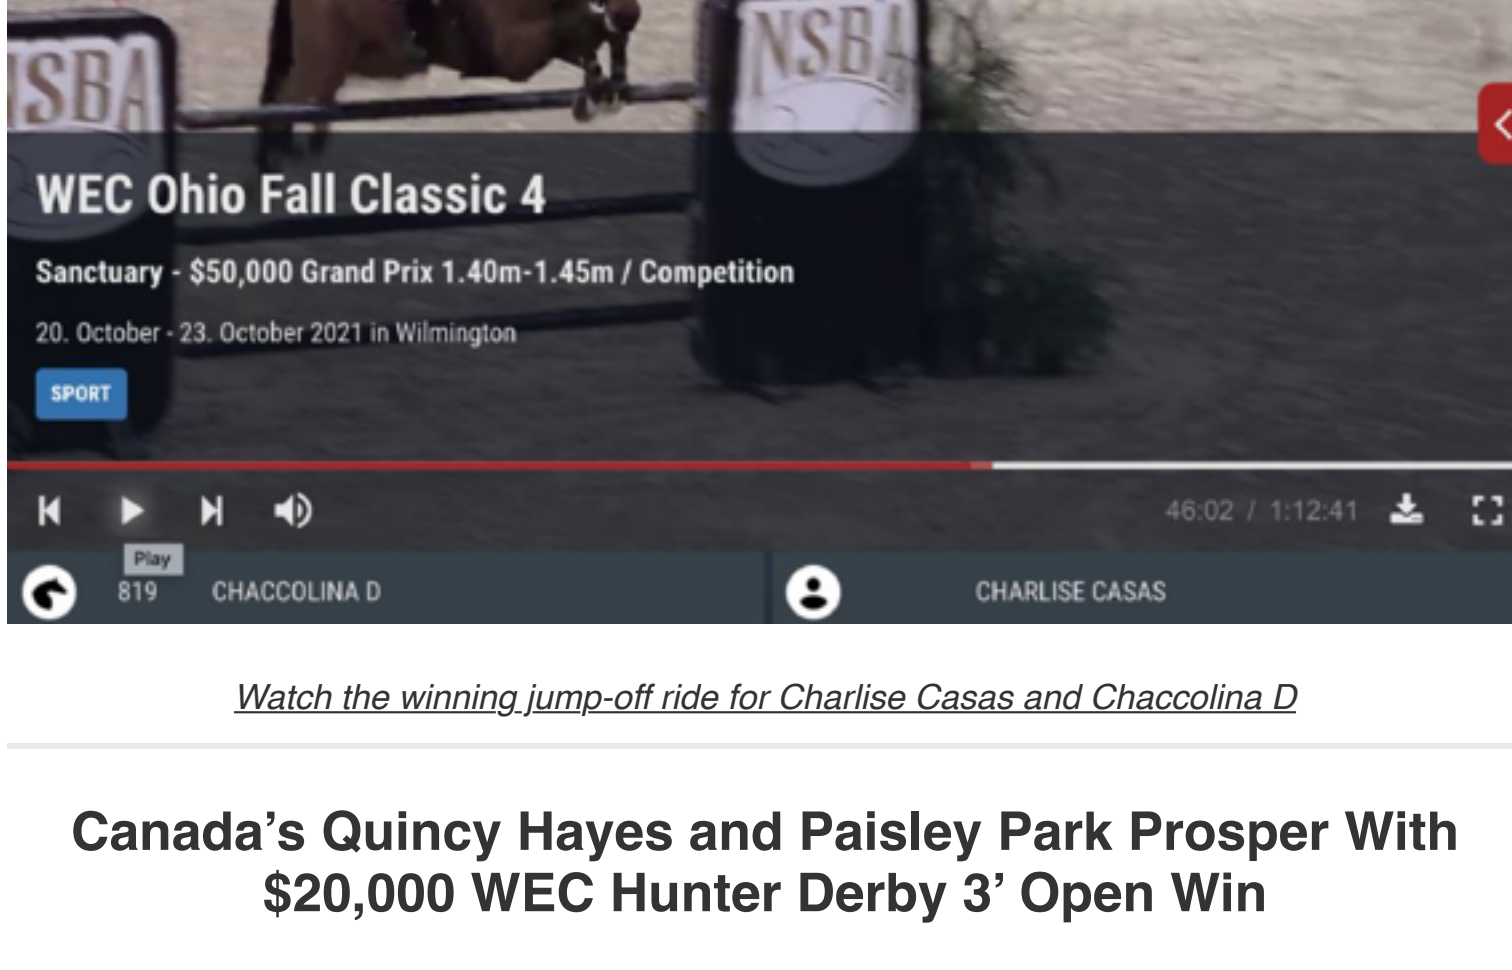

Casas and Chaccolina D, an eight-year-old Hanoverian mare by Chacco Blue x Quantus, have only been paired together since the beginning of 2021 but have already notched five grand prix wins. "Chacca is big-strided, yet light-footed, which you don't come across very often," said Casas. "She's super careful and really catty with her feet and is always trying to get out of the way of a rail. I really tried to land so that I could get to my turns as quickly as possible."

Second place went to Harry Harding (GBR) and G-Star, while Kady Abrahamson (USA) and Boudika Ideal Home finished third.

Canada's Quincy Hayes and Paisley Park Prosper With $20,000 WEC Hunter Derby 3' Open Win

Out of 28 competitors, Quincy Hayes of Toronto, Canada, rose to the top of the $20,000 WEC Hunter Derby 3' Open riding Paisley Park, owned by Danielle Baran. It was Hayes's first time competing at World Equestrian Center. The pair had scores of 90 and 94 to win with a total of 184.

"I am beyond grateful for this horse and the opportunity for us to show him," said Hayes. "Danielle has allowed me to bring him here and enter him in the Derby. We haven't gotten to travel and show much for nearly two years because of COVID-19 and the border shutdown in Canada. I didn't bring any customers with me because I wanted to let the horses get a good feel for being back in the swing of things. This is our first visit to WEC, and our plan has gone perfectly so far!"

Morgan Ward and Playmaker placed second with scores of 91.5 and 89, totaling 180.5. Jeff Gogul and Hip Hop received scores of 88 and 90 for a total of 178 and third place.
