

SCHEDULE

Tiffany Foster Scores World Cup Win at 2021 Washington International Horse Show

RESULTS

Mill Spring, N.C. – October 30, 2021 – Competition on Saturday, October 30, 2021,

LIVESTREAM

WEBSITE

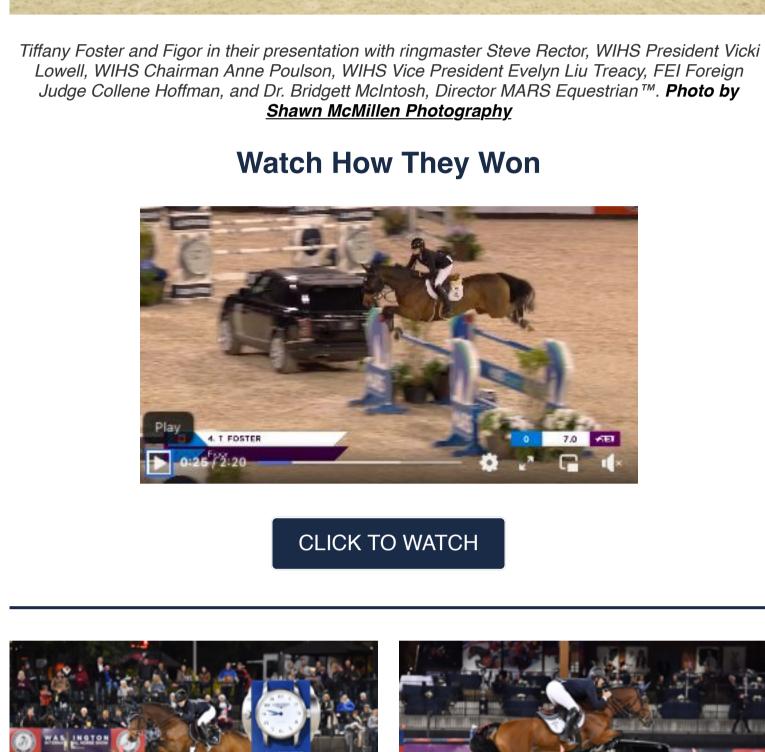

powered by fiContact

MARS Equestrian™ as Tiffany Foster (CAN) and Figor, owned by Artisan Farms LLC and Tiffany Foster, won the $215,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington CSI4*-W for the President's Cup, presented by Mars Equestrian™. Out of 33 first-round entries and four in the jump-off, it was the last combination to go, Foster and Figor, who would stand in the winner's circle.

came to an exciting finish at the Washington International Horse Show, presented by

MARS Equestrian Tiffany Foster (CAN) and Figor were victorious in the $215,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington CSI4*-W for the President's Cup, presented by Mars Equestrian™. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography The final pair to go, Foster opened up Figor's giant stride and left a stride out of the final line. They crossed the timers in 35.73 seconds for the win. "I know he has a huge stride, and it would probably be a risk for most to do nine [strides] to that last jump, but I knew my horse would just eat that up and that would really suit him, so that was really in my favor tonight," explained Foster. READ MORE

O Steam Hettillen 21

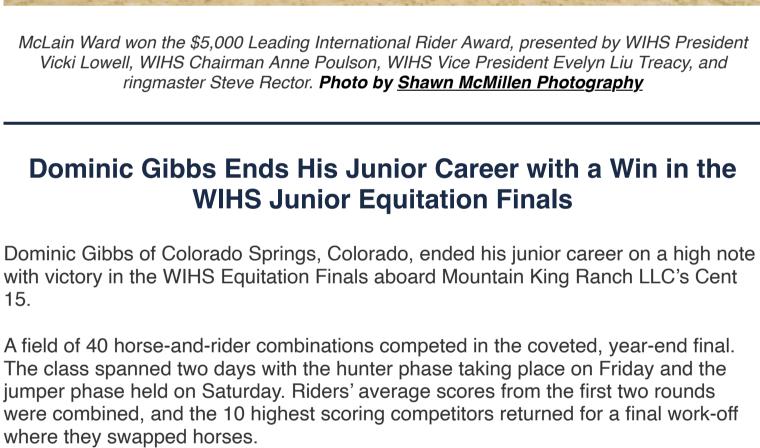

Alessandra Volpi (USA) and Berlinda were Alex Granato (USA) rode Carlchen W to third second in the grand prix. Photo by Shawn place. Photo by Shawn McMillen McMillen Photography Photography

15.

where they swapped horses.

junior years."

O Stewn H. Hillen 21

Dominic Gibbs and Cent 15 won the WIHS Equitation Finals. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

"I was really just hoping to stay consistent and have the three best rounds that I could," described Gibbs. "I feel like I know Cent like the back of my hand. I had originally bought him to be my high junior jumper, which obviously did not work out. He shined like a star in the equitation ring ever since day one. I'm so lucky to have such an amazing horse that I've had as a consistent partner through my last few

Gibbs and the 13-year-old Hanoverian gelding by Carenzo earned third place in the hunter phase after they scored an 88.75 and then topped the jumper phase with a high score of 90. The rider kept his cool for the final work-off and impressed the judges, Ralph Caristo, Sissy Wickes, Molly Ashe Cawley, and Callan Solem, on Skylar Wireman's horse, Fix Blue, to claim the top prize.

READ MORE

Click to watch an interview with Dominic Gibbs

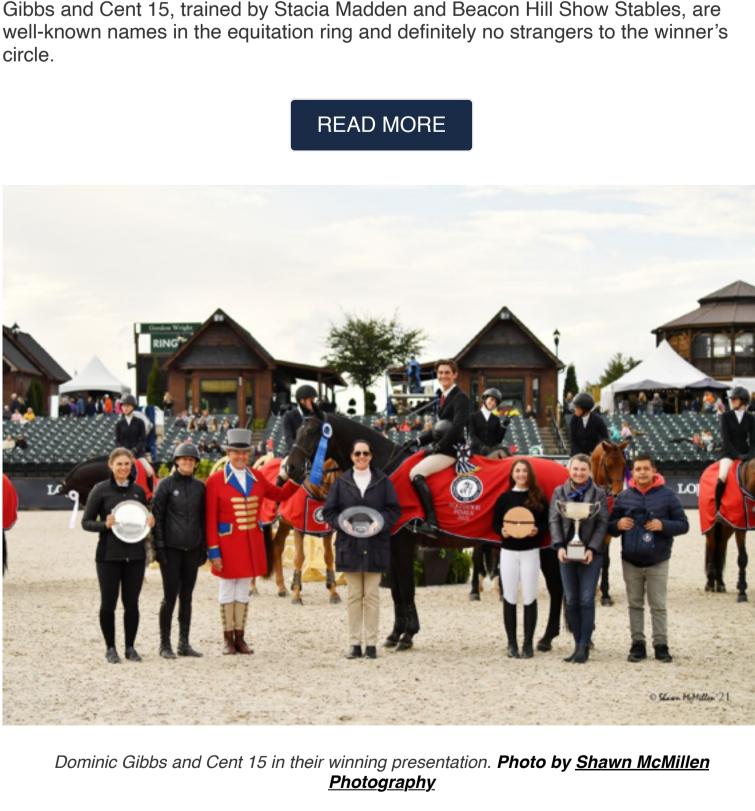

Watch the jumper phase round for Dominic

Gibbs and Cent 15

Watch the work off round for Dominic Gibbs

and Fix Blue

Watch How They Won

Maddie Tosh and Storyteller Take the Lead in the WIHS

Pony Equitation Finals

Pony competition took center stage in the Grand Hunter Ring and it was Maddie Tosh of Milton, Georgia, piloting Betsee Parker's Storyteller to the blue ribbon in the WIHS

Tosh returned to the final flat phase in second place after scoring an 85 in the first round over fences. The rider's style and technique stood out to the judges, and Tosh moved up to the top of the leaderboard. This victory was special for Tosh because not only was Betsee Parker there to celebrate, but it but it was also Tosh's last time

READ MORE

Watch How They Won

Maddie Tosh and Storyteller in the winning presentation for the WIHS Pony Equitation Final presented by Huntland. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

Virginia Bonnie and Efodea were the High Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper champions. Photo by Shawn McMillen

Photography

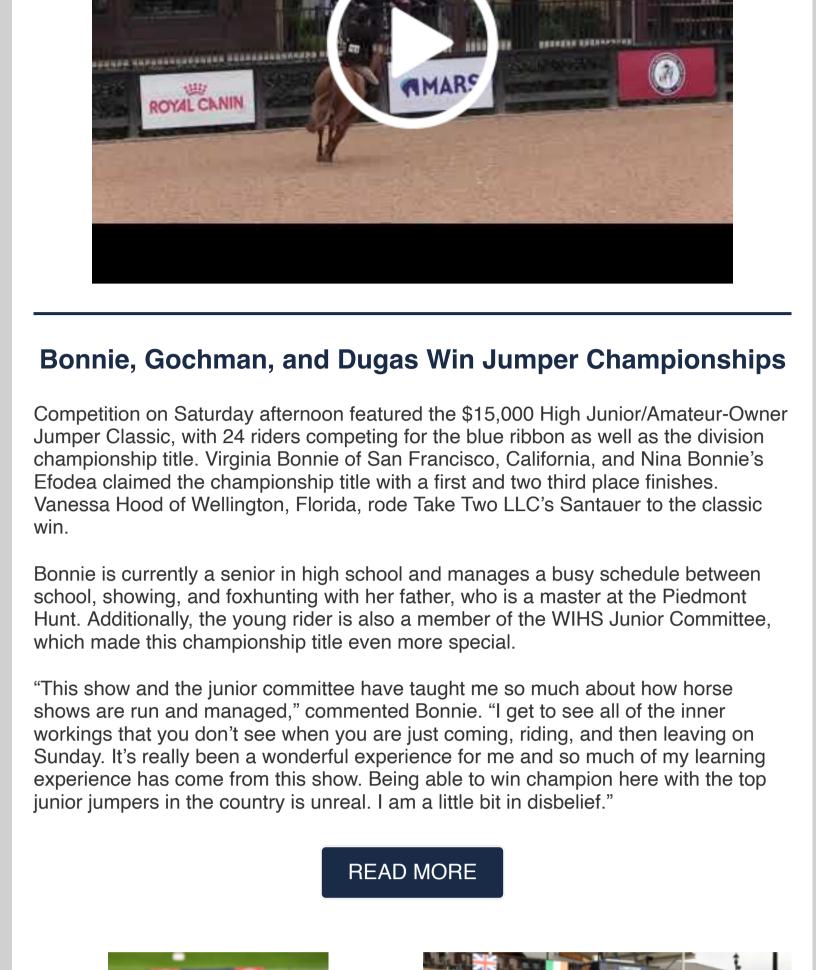

Pony Equitation Finals presented by Huntland.

Maddie Tosh and Storyteller. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

The win in the $15,000 High Junior/Amateur-

Owner Jumper Classic went to Vanessa Hood and Santauer. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

showing Storyteller.

Watch How They Won

Vanessa Hood and Santauer

Mimi Gochman continued her success to the jumper ring on Saturday when the rider took home the top prize in the $7,500 Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Classic as well as Gochman, of New York, New York, and Codi BH were one of five horse-and-rider combinations that returned for the jump-off in the classic. The duo navigated the technical course with ease and finished with the winning time of 34.211 seconds.

The pair's partnership began last year at TIEC when Gochman tried Codi BH for the first time. The nine-year-old Holsteiner mare by Casall was previously shown by one of Gochman's trainers, Amanda Derbyshire, who thought that the pair would be a

READ MORE

The final class of the Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper division took place on Saturday with the crowning of the division champion. Caroline Michele Dugas of Birmingham, Alabama, rode her own Skyfall to the championship title. For this

Myers Equestrian LLC's Skara Glen's Signature to the win in the $7,500 Low

Dugas and Skyfall won a class earlier in the week and then secured the tricolor ribbon with a second-place finish in the classic with a time of 35.739, which was less

The 20-year-old rider has been developing her relationship with Skyfall for the past six years. Although the gelding was not initially what Dugas was expecting when she was looking for a horse, the match ended up being perfect.

READ MORE

Watch How They Won

achievement, Dugas was presented with The Foxbrook Perpetual Trophy donated by Joy Slater in honor of Space Citation. Sydney Myers of Plantation, Florida, piloted the division championship with Gochman Sport Horse LLC's Codi BH.

good match.

Medium Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper

Classic. Photo by Shawn McMillen

Photography

Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Classic.

than a second behind the winner.

MARS Equestrian

Sydney Myers and Skara Glen's Signature won the $7,500 Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper Classic. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

championship presentation. Photo by Shawn

McMillen Photography

Caroline Michele Dugas and Skyfall were the Low Junior/Amateur-Owner Jumper champions. Photo by Shawn McMillen Photography

Mimi Gochman and Codi BH Sydney Myers and Skara Glen's Signature In Front of The Lens Photos by Alden Corrigan

#WIHS #WIHS2021 #FEIWorldCup #Longines #TimeToBeat

Liked by jamie_buis, gia_rinaldi and 384 others to @mclainward.official #11, @daniel_coyle_showjumper [1] and wall height of 1.95 meters. WOW! 🥸 🦾 @shawnmcmillenphoto #WIHS #WIHS2021 #Puissance #LandRover tryonresort These superstar horses had springs in their feet during last night's $25,000 International Jumper @landrover Puissance High Jump! # Congratulations @santiagolambrehorses IIII who tied for the blue at a #Repost @wihs They understood the assignment 🦾 Join The Conversation

When posting about the Washington International Horse Show on social media, be sure to use the following hashtags for a chance to be featured in the daily newsletter: