Masterclass with Andre Dignelli of Heritage Farm Available Now!

Barn Talk Coming Soon

Heritage Farm is a New York-based institution that has produced national hunter, jumper, and equitation champions for nearly three decades. In his junior years, head trainer Andre Dignelli won the 1985 USET Show Jumping Talent Search Finals and later went on to win the bronze medal at the 1991 Pan American Games. Since then, he has coached numerous equitation, hunter, and jumper champions at the nation's top shows. With a tightly knit team of riders and trainers, Heritage Farm has helped develop countless top riders, including Kent Farrington, Kirsten Coe, Maggie McAlary, Reed Kessler, Lillie Keenan, and many others.
