World Equestrian Center Highlights From Ocala Winter Spectacular VIII and Winter in the Midwest XI

Peter Petschenig (AUT) earned his second grand prix win for the season, this time with Brooke Peterson's Ennebel Van Het Posthuids in the $75,000 Alltech Grand Prix at WEC – Ocala.

"I've only been riding [Ennebel Van Het Posthuids] for two months now. It is still a new partnership and we are still getting to know each other, but she is getting better and better each time."

Charlotte Clark (USA) and her own Kinsella captured the top prize in the $30,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix.

"We had a very tidy turn between the first two jumps of the jump-off. There actually was a timer malfunction after my first jump. There was a weird glitch, so I had to start over. I was thinking, 'Oh my gosh, I really hope I don't knock it over the second time!' After that, all was good and we were just so tidy."

Samantha Schaefer and Madeline Schaefer's In The Know secured the win in the $20,000 WEC – Ocala 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby with scores of 89 and 93.

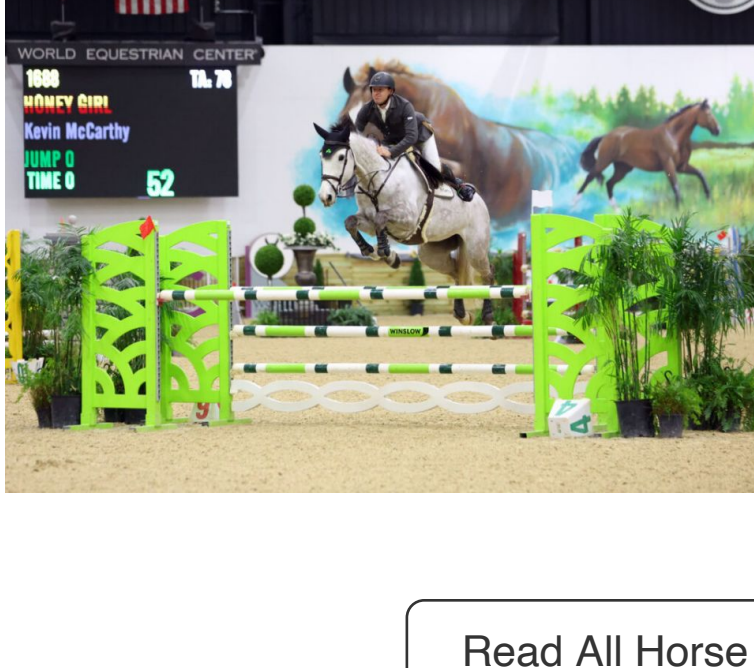

"When I first looked at the handy, I was wondering how it was going to flow, but it actually rode really well. There were a few places that made you think about your track, timing and rhythm. One jump would set up the next."

The pair took the lead in the first round after scoring an 89 and held on to that lead through the handy round with a second score of 89.
