World Equestrian Center Highlights From Ocala Winter Spectacular X and Winter in the Midwest XIII

Aaron Vale (USA) and I Adermie R 4, owned by Lori Osterstock, bested an international field of riders to win the $75,000 UF Health Grand Prix at WEC – Ocala.

"I started showing her sometime in September. We showed here at WEC in December, where we did 1.30m, 1.35m and 1.40m classes. She has been moving up quite nicely."

Paul Halpern (CAN) and Esra, owned by Vanessa Lee, captured the top prize in the $30,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix.

"I've been riding Esra since the beginning of her career. Her owner manages our stable. She is amazing. She's just such a special mare. She's quality, really smart and careful. She looks for the jumps. If I do the right thing in the saddle, she always gives 110%."

Samantha Schaefer and Madeline Schaefer's In The Know secured their third win in the $20,000 WEC – Ocala 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby with two scores of 91.

"I saw some riders before me do some tricky inside turns, but I thought it was better for him in this ring to try and be smooth. I didn't want to twist him around and take a risk, especially with the eerie storm weather heading our way. I focused on consistency and showing off his amazing jump."

Melissa Donnelly and Elizabeth Becker's Corlando 49 shined in the $10,000 USHJA National Hunter Derby 3' Open at WEC – Wilmington.

"I really liked the course. It was a change in pace this week. There were so many options. There was a lot of flow, and it allowed the horses to really pay attention. I was able to show off his gallop in a few places."

Bryn Sadler and Showcase 81, LLC's Cezarro were victorious in the $10,000 Buckeye Nutrition Futures Prix at WEC – Ocala.

"The time allowed was perfect for us. Cezarro is a smaller guy, and he thrives off momentum. The faster I go, the better he jumps. I don't ever have to worry about the time allowed with him because he's efficient across the ground and over the jumps."
