World Equestrian Center – Wilmington Spring II

Kady Abrahamson was victorious in the $30,000 WEC Grand Prix for the second week in a row, this time aboard her own Maraca LS La Silla.

“We came back after retiring at fence two last week. She just wasn’t feeling it, and I didn’t want to push her. She gave me her all coming back this week, and I stayed out of her way. She’s so fast in the air, and I think that gave us the advantage.”

Holly Helbig and her own On Call claimed top honors in the $10,000 WEC Hunter Derby 3' Open with scores of 89 and 85.

“We literally just got this horse to the States! He was brought home last week, and this class was his debut in the U.S. We named him On Call because I am the vet here, and I am always on call. He’s so incredible, and the course suited him well.”

Darby Pease claimed another top prize in the $10,000 WEC Futures Prix with Tyson Ziebarth's Fenn.

“I only started riding Fenn in March, so she is fairly new to me. She is the absolute fastest horse that I have ever sat on! Speed is her thing and that helped us win today’s class.”
