Take a Peek Inside

Stable Spotlight: Thornell Equestrian

Our Stable Spotlight shines on Thornell Equestrian in Loveland, OH. Together with their parents, sisters Natalie and Erika Thornell have established a successful jumper training business at their charming home facility. The siblings balance schoolwork with farm work and have notched notable wins in their pursuit of top sport.

Inspiration: Richard Spooner and Chatinus

Draw inspiration from the touching story of show jumping veteran Richard Spooner and Chatinus. In just six months together, the pair contended the FEI World Cup™ Final but an injury threatened to end the career of the talented horse. A determined Spooner persisted with care and rehabilitation until Chatinus made a fantastic comeback.

24 Hours With Sharn Wordley

Spend a wonderful 24 hours with Sharn Wordley at his dreamy Ocala farm. After relocating to Ocala, the Olympian from New Zealand has become a fixture in the WEC Grand Prix winner's circle with his fabulous string of horses.

Junior Rider Focus: Skylar Wireman

Our Junior Rider Focus shines on the 2022 WEC Premier Cup Equitation Championship winner, Skylar Wireman. After earning the reserve champion spot at the USHJA EAP finals at just 14 years old, Skylar has since made a name for herself as a top three-ring rider.

Equestrian Style: Emma Hedderman

An innovative new company from Ireland has landed on American shores and is leveling up the boot market. In Equestrian Style we meet entrepreneur Emma Hedderman and her elegant STRIDE BOOTWEAR collection. Emma has designed and launched a next generation of boots that cover the equestrian from riding to street wear chic.

We hope you enjoy the issue!
