World Equestrian Center – Wilmington USEF Fall Classic II

Darby Pease (USA) and Louisa Robb's Carel Van Donderen won the $50,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix.

"I am still in shock. While I was riding the short course, all I thought to myself was, 'Go faster and don't touch the reins.' There were so many talented riders tonight, so I knew winning was going to be a long shot, but that wasn't going to stop me from trying. It also means so much to have my first grand prix victory at WEC. I have been showing here for three or four years now, and I barely go anywhere else."

Hillary Johnson and Stephanie Battershall's Blue Monday captured the top prize in the $10,000 USHJA National 3' Open Hunter Derby. The pair earned scores of 88 and 92.

"He's an absolute blast to ride in the derbies. This is his career; he does the derbies with me, and his owner/mother is hoping to make her show ring debut this winter competing in the crossrail or long stirrup classes. He loves both jobs and does them very well."

Richard Rinehart and Ron Caraway's Vincent won the $10,000 WEC – Wilmington Futures Prix.

"I decided to pass on the inside turn to the double combination. Vincent is very careful and doesn't like to jump combinations off the short turn, so my plan was to have a solid foot speed around the course."

This week's Wilmington Sunday Spotlight shines on 12-year-old Elizabeth Rinehart. This young athlete is already making a name for herself in the hunter/jumper world, taking numerous top placings in national hunter derbies and equitation classes. We caught up with Elizabeth to learn more about her and some of the horses that she rides.
