World Equestrian Center – Wilmington USEF Fall Classic V

For the third week in a row, Santiago Lambre (BRA) was victorious in the $75,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix this time aboard his own Chacco Blue II.

“It was a fast class so I knew I was going to have to be as quick as possible. [Chacco Blue II] has a big step so he covered a lot of ground quickly, and I was very tidy back to the vertical after the double combination.”

Colin Syquia and Cynthia Sulzberger's Front Page captured the top prize in the $20,000 WEC – Wilmington 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby. The pair earned impressive scores of 93 and 90.

“He has always been a laid-back horse but with an electric jump. He has the knack and wants to win. The bigger the stage, the better. He always rises to the occasion and never shrinks under pressure.”

Colin Syquia (USA) and Sandra O'Donnell's Justice won the $10,000 WEC – Wilmington Futures Prix.

“Justice is a special horse. I actually rode her mom in some of the biggest classes I've ever done. We ended up having to stop showing her at a young age because of a cyst so we decided to breed her. Justice was one of her first foals, and I have been riding her ever since she was four years old.”

This week's Wilmington Sunday Spotlight shines on accomplished junior rider, Skylar Wireman of Bonsall, CA. Wireman has secured a long list of victories throughout her junior career at top shows. In February 2022 she drove away in a brand-new car after winning the WEC Premier Equitation Cup Championship at WEC – Ocala. Wireman's success continued in October when the young rider scored the title of 2022 Grand Junior Hunter 3'6" Champion at the Capital Challenge Horse Show and was reserve in both the 2022 Dover Saddlery/USEF Hunt Seat Medal Final at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show and the 2022 Washington International Horse Show (WIHS). WEC sat down with Skylar to learn more about her recent accomplishments.
