

SHOW TIME

2022 LONGINES GLOBAL CHAMPIONS TOUR OF NEW YORK—Governors Island, New York, NY

1. Show jumper Erynn Ballard (CAN) was featured in the September issue of Sidelines and shows off her own copy in New York. Photo by Jump Media 2. Matthew Boddy (GBR) and Chameur in the prize-giving after winning the CSI2* Grand Prix, presented by Champagne Piaff. 3. Daniel Deusser and Scuderia 1918 Tobago Z enter the ring with groom Sean Lynch for the winning Grand Prix presentation. 4. Mimi Gochman (USA) rode in a hometown show and collected two wins in the CSI2* division with Happyfee. 5. Another two-time winner for the show was Lenir Alejandro Perez Facusse (HON), who had a Sunday victory with Nashua. 6. Show jumping star Peder Fredricson of Sweden competed in New York. 7. Georgina Bloomberg handing out New York Empire swag to the capacity crowd on Saturday. 8. U.S. show jumper Lillie Keenan had a meet and greet with riders from Gallop NYC, a therapeutic horsemanship program. 9. The host team, New York Empire, with riders Spencer Smith, Georgina Bloomberg, and Denis Lynch, under the backdrop of Manhattan. 10. The podium for the Longines Global Champions Tour Grand Prix of New York was topped by Daniel Deusser of Germany, followed by Pieter Devos (BEL) and Malin Baryard-Johnsson (SWE). 11. The winning GCL team, the Prague Lions, with riders Anna Kellnerova, Pieter Devos and Niels Bruynseels. 12. The incredible venue of LGCT New York on Governors Island. All photos by LGCT, unless noted otherwise