

HORSE SHOWS

Washington International Horse Show
OCT. 24-30 | UPPER MARLBORO, MARYLAND

Shadowfax Equestrian LLC's Bond won all three over fences classes with Augusta Iwasaki to claim the small junior hunter, 16-17, and grand junior hunter titles. SHAWN MCMILLEN PHOTOGRAPHY PHOTO

Ringmaster Steve Rector sounded the call to signal the beginning of each class. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO

JJ Torano and Paris Charm completed a clean sweep of the fall indoor circuit, winning the medium pony hunter title at Capital Challenge (Md.), the Pennsylvania National and Washington International. The pony is owned by Megan D'Amico and the Torano family. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO

Grace Debney and Zarina De Vidau dressed as Khaleesi and one of her "Game of Thrones" dragons and won best costume in the $37,000 Accumulator Costume Class. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO

Irene Neuwirth (center) captured both tricolors in the amateur-owner hunter, 36 and over, division, riding Juan Carlos to the championship and Guess Who to the reserve championship. She was joined in the presentation by (from left) Washington International president Vicki Lowell, trainer John Bragg and assistant trainer Mitch Endicott. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO

Lee Kellogg Sadrian picked up the championship in the 3'3" amateur-owner hunter, 36 and over, division aboard Augustine (pictured) and the reserve award aboard Blink. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO

Reagan Jarrett and her own Dream Big earned the small pony hunter championship. MOLLIE BAILEY PHOTO