

World Equestrian Center Highlights From Ocala Winter Spectacular V and Wilmington Winter in the Midwest VIII

Aaron Vale (USA) and Cristo Beech, owned by Alise Carrico and Thinks Like A Horse, secured victory in the $100,000 Alltech Grand Prix at WEC – Ocala.

“He has been very consistent. He’s been jumping a lot of clear rounds so he’s been getting some more chances in the jump-off.”

Nicole Loochtan (USA) and her own It's Me du Bosquetiau topped the podium in the $30,000 WEC – Wilmington Grand Prix.

“The course was very technical. The jumps came up very quickly off the turns, and there were a lot of related lines. You had to really be on it to make it all work out.”

Tiffany Cambria and Malibu Ken, owned by Kym K Smith, earned the top prize in the $20,000 Golden Ocala Golf and Equestrian Club 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby at WEC – Ocala. The duo received impressive scores of 92 and 90.5.

“We bought him from Daniel Bedoya, who brought him over from Europe as a jumper. I ended up trying the horse for his now owner, and we fell in love with him. He was still a little bit green. We decided to stick him in the hunter ring so he could focus on straight lines and learn, but he just took to it.”

For the second week in a row, Kristjan Good secured the win in the $15,000 USHJA National Hunter Derby 3' Open at WEC – Wilmington, this time aboard Quirocks, owned by Jennifer Lecluse. The pair earned scores of 89 and 94.

“[Quirocks] is newer to me. This is our second year showing him, and he has been doing the 3'6" greens all year. He was champion in the division here this week. He had a rail in the derby last week so this was his redemption week.”

Lisa Goldman-Smolten (USA) and Sovereign, owned by Barbara Disko, were victorious in the $15,000 Buckeye Nutrition Futures Prix at WEC – Ocala.

“I was able to watch the few riders go ahead of me, and the course ended up looking to be a bit more challenging than I anticipated. The four-stride line looked like it rode a bit long, and then the six looked pretty steady. It was a bit of an advantage to watch right before I went in.”

Claire Austin (USA) and Michael Kirby's K T Miel won the $10,000 Futures Prix at WEC – Wilmington.

“I wanted to do the inside turn like Nicole [Loochtan], but we were really moving. I tried to go in between the small gap to fence six, and I lost my stirrup there. I kept going forward, and he was right there. He was awesome.”
