

World Equestrian Center Highlights From Ocala Winter Spectacular VIII and Wilmington Winter in the Midwest XI

Santiago Lambre (BRA) and his own Chacco Blue II secured victory in the $100,000 Hampton Green Farms Grand Prix at WEC – Ocala.

"It wasn't the plan to show this week. He had two weeks off after the five-star, and he is going to show here at World Equestrian Center – Ocala next week in the three-star. He needed to jump a bit, and it was either going to be at home or here. I decided to enter him in the class two days ago. I am happy with the outcome, and I am looking forward to next week's CSI3*."

Sam Pegg (CAN) and Gin Tonic 158, owned by Ten Sixty Stables, topped the podium in the $30,000 Tribute Equine Nutrition Grand Prix at WEC – Wilmington.

"[Gin Tonic 158] knows his job once you get going. He has a lot of blood. I tried to get away from the second jump and turn quickly back to the vertical. I took a little bit of time to jump the combination because with an oxer to a vertical you jump a little high on the way in. He jumped it nicely, and I did one less stride to the last fence."

Samantha Schaefer and In The Know, owned by Madeline Schaefer, earned back-to-back wins in the $20,000 Golden Ocala Golf and Equestrian Club 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby at WEC – Ocala. The duo received excellent scores of 94 and 91.

"The course was beautiful today. The jumps were big, and I really enjoyed how they used the end of the ring to connect the track. You felt like you were riding jump to jump rather than taking a stroll in the turns."

Kathleen Caya and Colleen Nagy White's Copa du Cache secured the win in the $15,000 USHJA National Hunter Derby 3' Open at WEC – Wilmington. The pair earned scores of 89 and 90.

"I try and go for it since [Copa Du Cache] is so good. I always think about the next time and try to get better. It was a fun course tonight with a lot of options."

Richard Rinehart (USA) and Ron Caraway's Vincent were victorious in the $15,000 Buckeye Nutrition Futures Prix at WEC – Ocala. The pair bested a field of 27 horse-and-rider combinations.

Rinehart and Vincent stopped the timers at 30.803 seconds to claim victory by three seconds.

Sam Pegg (CAN) and Claas, owned by Ten Sixty Stables, won the $10,000 Futures Prix at WEC – Wilmington.

"Claas came and met us down in Florida in the middle of January. He did some 1.30m and 1.35m classes in Ocala. We brought the horses back up here, and it has been nice to be able to do some modified classes with him."

This week's Wilmington Sunday Spotlight shines on the delightful nine-year-old Dutch Warmblood mare, Jadina (Canabis Z x Tordina). With Kevin McCarthy (IRL) in the irons throughout the 2023 Winter in the Midwest series, the talented young mare has become a crowd favorite with her lovely expression and impressive scope. Jadina, owned by Sweet Oak Farm, has worked her way up the ranks in the open jumper classes at World Equestrian Center – Wilmington and has found numerous double clears and podium placings. Most recently Jadina and McCarthy earned third place in the $30,000 Grand Prix during Winter Classic XI. We caught up with Keely O'Hara and Kevin McCarthy to learn more about their favorite barn mate.
