

World Equestrian Center – Ocala Summer IX

Dorothy Douglas (USA) and MTM Pablo, owned by Davenport Farms, won the $100,000 Wheels Up Grand Prix.

“It feels surreal. MTM Pablo has been knocking on the door the entire year for one of these big wins. I’ve been second a few times, and we like to call it being a bridesmaid but today I’m the bride. For him to win this class is unbelievable. He deserves this win.”

Erika Moore and Chacco Ricco, owned by Noble Steeds LLC, captured the top prize in the $12,500 3'6"-3'9" Hunter Derby sponsored by Golden Ocala Golf & Equestrian Club. The pair earned fantastic scores of 88 and 92.

“Going back with the top score, it’s better to play it a little conservative, be handy, be tidy, but don’t be overzealous. I rode exactly what I planned on, and I was lucky to ride my other horse before him. It showed me what I needed to do better and what I needed to do less.”

Alberto Michan (ISR) and Kabuki, owned by Maeve O’Connor, claimed top honors in the $10,000 Buckeye Nutrition Futures Prix.

“She’s naturally fast over the jumps, and I think that was the difference. I was in the beginning of the class, and I knew there were a bunch of fast riders behind me so I gave it my all. She stayed focused and was trying to be very careful.”

This week’s Ocala Sunday Spotlight shines on professional hunter rider Jennifer Bliss of Wellington, FL. Bliss began riding at an early age, and shortly after she finished her junior career she became a professional, opening Harris Hill Farm, LLC. Bliss is not only an accomplished hunter rider and trainer, but she is also a Large ‘R’ Hunter and Equitation judge. We caught up with Bliss to learn more about her career, some of her top mounts and how judging has influenced her riding.
