Highlights From World Equestrian Center – Wilmington Fall Classic IV

Lisa Goldman-Smolen (USA) and Ivoro N, owned by Barabra Disko, were victorious in the $75,000 Standlee Grand Prix.

“He is the younger of my two grand prix horses. He has really come into his own this last year. He is the first horse that I have ever won anything over $65,000 on! He is a sweetheart.”

Havens Schatt and her own Chance captured the top prize in the $15,000 Standlee USHJA National Hunter Derby. The pair earned high scores of 94 and 93.

“Chance has been a great learning experience for me. He is something new. You can never stop learning in the sport; you have to do what makes a horse shine in their own way.”

Vicente Guillen (VEN) and Caribi, owned by Tranquility Farm, won the $10,000 Futures Prix.

“WEC has played an amazing role in developing some of my younger horses. My seven-year-old was actually second in the Welcome. The footing here is perfect, and the course designers are amazing. It is a great place to develop younger horses.”
