

Highlights From World Equestrian Center – Wilmington Fall Classic V

Johan Kachelhoffer (RSA) and his own Cooper B were victorious in the $75,000 GGT Footing Grand Prix.

“It has been a long time coming for Cooper B! I got him two years ago, and he was jumping around 1.20m classes. He has had very good success. This is the first bigger grand prix that he has won.”

For the second week in a row, Havens Schatt and her own Chance captured the top prize in the $15,000 GGT Footing USHJA National Hunter Derby. The pair earned high scores of 94 and 87.

“I felt like you really had to ride the courses; there wasn’t much time to rest. Everything came up quickly, and the first line was a little tricky. When I walked it I thought seven strides, but Chance doesn’t always like to go away from the gate right at first. I jumped it off the left and opted for the eight strides. He settled in after that, and the first round was really good.”

Vicente Guillen (VEN) and his own Chacera won the $10,000 Futures Prix.

“Chacera is only seven years old. She was second in the welcome during the Fall IV show. She is a really nice horse. She needs a bit more experience. She is really good, fast and careful. WEC has been great to get her more experience. The futures and the welcome are great classes for these horses competing at 1.30m and 1.35m.”
