

Capital Challenge Horse Show

Upper Marlboro, Maryland | Sept. 28-Oct. 8

Photos By Shawn McMillen Photography

Lakshmi Jeyanandarajan made her trip from Irvine, Calif., count when she rode her own Ratafat to the top of the $10,000 NAL Children's Hunter Finals and to the children's hunter, 15-17, and grand children's hunter championships.

Brendan Weiss topped the North American Adult Equitation Championship aboard Elizabeth Cohen's Hello Houston Z.

Junior Isabelle Ehman piloted Double E LLC's Aston Des Etesses to both the NAL Medium Junior/Amateur Jumper Welcome and NAL Medium Junior/Amateur Jumper Classic titles at Capital Challenge.

Katherine Simonds and West Coast Equine Partners LLC's Crowd Pleaser earned the WCHR 3'3" Junior Hunter Challenge title as well as the 3'3" junior hunter, 16-17, and grand 3'3" junior hunter championships.

Frosted left Upper Marlboro, Md., with lots of awards, earning the WCHR Adult Amateur Challenge win as well as the adult amateur hunter, 50 and over, and grand adult amateur championships with owner Rindy Dominguez (pictured). Professional Jennifer Hannan also rode the stallion to the 3'3" green hunter, section B, and grand 3' and 3'3" green hunter championships.