World Equestrian Center Highlights

Wilmington Spring 1

The highlight event of the week, the $25,000 Dandy Products Grand Prix, showed two new successful partnerships for Francisco Goyoaga Mollet (ESP).

Mollet successfully piloted his two entries, Livingstone Van Het Peggershof and Pst De Muze, both owned by Ashland Farms, to the jump-off. He returned first aboard the 13-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding Livingstone Van Het Peggershof (Ogano Sitte x Thunder Vd Zuuthoeve). Mollet delivered with his new partner, clocking in an uncatchable 37.028 seconds to ultimately gallop away with the victory. Pst De Muze was quick enough for third place.

“Livingstone is a brand-new horse we just got from Europe a week ago. I jumped him once at home, and he was amazing, so I was expecting a good day of jumping.”

A field of stunning hunters gathered at the Main Hunter Arena to vie for top honors in the $10,000 USHJA National 3' Open Hunter Derby. Rachael Herkowitz of Bloomfield Hills, MI, impressed the judges aboard her own Harmony (Quiran x Romance I) ultimately claiming the lion's share of the prize money.

Herkowitz delivered an effortless first round aboard the stylish 10-year-old Holsteiner mare, earning a high score of 90. With another top score of 89, Herkowitz and Harmony secured the first-place spot on the leaderboard with an overall total of 179.

“This was the perfect show to prepare for Devon. The jumps are so beautiful and full. We have been showing in the 3'6" Amateur-Owner Hunters, and this will be our first time showing at Devon, so we are excited. After today, it's nice to go there with some confidence.”

The first featured class of the 2024 Spring/Summer Series commenced in the outdoor arena at WEC – Wilmington. Ireland's Kevin Gallagher returned to Wilmington with a new mount, Campinas 4 (Campitello x Aluta), to take the win in the $7,500 Barncat App Welcome Stake.

“We just got here last night. We came in October and loved it. We have a whole new group of horses so we wanted to come and test them out a little bit. The facilities here are unbelievable. It is like being at a five-star show. The surfaces are perfect, the ring looks unbelievable and the jumps are beautiful. It is a brilliant place to be. We were joking that we feel like we are on vacation here!”
