World Equestrian Center Highlights

Wilmington Fall II

Canada's Sam Pegg and his quickest mount, Gin Tonic 158, proved their dominance against the field with yet another grand prix win in the $50,000 Grand Prix of WEC – Wilmington Fall Classic II.

"I decided to stay on nine strides from one to two in the jump-off. I tried to focus on the turns and get away from the back side of the jumps. There were two right hand turns, and that's his favorite way. I thought I didn't have to try to perform a miracle but make tight turns and keep his feet moving."

The $10,000 Clinton County CVB Futures Prix was the first featured class of the afternoon at WEC – Wilmington Fall Classic II. Annalice Weithofer (USA) and her seasoned mount, Trig Happy Wind Van Het Eikenhof, ultimately were the only duo to conquer Robert Barton's tracks and move onto the jump-off phase.

"I have had him for the past three years now. When I first got him, I started in the 1.15m. He has helped me grow as a rider and has really shown me the ropes in the bigger classes. I have jumped a few small grands prix on him. He is 17 now, so we pick and choose what classes he will show in. He is just keeping me going, and I am enjoying still being able to show him!"

Havens Schatt returned to Fall Classic II at WEC – Wilmington to claim her second consecutive win in the $15,000 Shires Equestrian USHJA National Hunter Derby, this time aboard Caroline Moran's Cruise.

"He is only seven, but we bought him as a four-year-old out of an auction, so I know him very well. He came over as a five-year-old and showed lightly last year, but I always know what to expect and he knows what to expect from me. He is just easy for me. It is always nice to have one that you know what is going to happen when you go in."
