

FAVORITE COMPETITIONS

JUMPING

The Winter Equestrian Festival (WEF) is the world's largest hunter-jumper show. Spanning three months, it draws elite riders and horses globally for top-tier hunter, jumper, and equitation events.

★ WEF, WELLINGTON

- DEVON COUNTRY FAIR
- UPPERVILLE

REINING

Las Vegas, Nevada, hosts The Run For A Million event that captivates top-tier riders. Offering reining's richest prize at $1 million, it enjoys widespread and enduring popularity.

★ RUN FOR A MILLION

- NRBC, TEXAS
- NRHA, OKLAHOMA

DRESSAGE

The Adequan Global Dressage Festival in Wellington, Florida, features international-level competition with over $650,000 in prize money and attracts the world's top riders and horses.

★ ADEQUAN GLOBAL DRESSAGE

- DRESSAGE AT DEVON
- US DRESSAGE FINAL

EVENTING

The annual Land Rover Kentucky 3-Day Event features thrilling equestrian competitions with challenging cross-country courses and an electrifying atmosphere.

★ LAND ROVER KENTUCKY 3-DAY

- REBECCA FARM
- MARYLAND 5-STAR AT FAIR HILL

FAVORITE DISCIPLINES

Equestrian Living readers enjoy a diverse mix of disciplines. While the majority ride hunter-jumper, a significant number favor dressage or trail riding. Western/reining is popular with a smaller group, with hunting and polo also representing our readers' varied equestrian passions.

HUNTER JUMPER, 43%
DRESSAGE, 16%
TRAIL RIDING, 14%
WESTERN/REINING, 9%
HUNTING, 4%
POLO, 3%

EVENT WISH LIST

Voters chose the equestrian event they would most like to attend.

★ AACHEN, GERMANY

- THE OLYMPICS
- LAND ROVER KENTUCKY
- WEF, WELLINGTON
- SAUT HERMÈS PARIS
- DUBLIN HORSE SHOW

AACHEN, Germany, has been a legendary equestrian hub since 1898. Hosting the Concours Hippique International Officiel (CHIO), it annually draws elite riders and over 350,000 spectators for a top five-discipline competition (See page 52)

