

Team USA McLain Ward, Marilyn Little, Robert Ridland, Callie Schott, and Karl Cook.

2026 NATIONS CUP

Backed by a sea of red, white, and blue throughout the arena — and an enthusiastic United States Equestrian Team (USET) Foundation and US Equestrian watch party — the team of Karl Cook, Marilyn Little, Callie Schott, and McLain Ward rose to the occasion to win its second consecutive victory in the prestigious FEI Jumping Nations Cup Wellington CIO4*. Over the 25-year history of the Wellington leg of the FEI Nations Cup, the U.S. has taken the top spot on the podium 11 times. USET Foundation donors, supporters, and friends gathered ringside for a reception and watch party jointly hosted with US Equestrian to cheer on the team, creating a lively display of unity and national pride. Guests waved flags and celebrated each round, embodying the spirit of partnership between athletes and the philanthropic community that powers U.S. equestrian sport on the world stage.

Luxury equestrian-products brand LeMieux joined the fun in support of the U.S. Equestrian Team.

The USET Foundation and U.S. Equestrian's watch party.

Karl Cook and Caracole de la Roque.

Marilyn Little and La Contessa.

McLain Ward and Jordan Molga M.

Callie Schott.

ALDEN CORRIGAN

ALDEN CORRIGAN

ALDEN CORRIGAN

ALDEN CORRIGAN

ALDEN CORRIGAN